

Idioms (Intermediate)

Choose an idiom from the given options to match each of the following statements:

(Note: a few changes to the verb or article used in the expression might be required to make it fit into the statement)

(burn the midnight oil, at the drop of a hat, hit the sack, a hot potato, beat around the bush, Elvis has left the building, ball is in your court, feel a bit under the weather, cross that bridge when you come to it, best thing since sliced bread)

1. You should talk about the problem of smog and pollution in your speech. It's _____ these days.
2. There are so many phone applications that you can order and receive everything _____.
3. I have made all the arrangements as per the plan. Now, you have to take charge. The _____.
4. Stop _____ and talk about the issue we need to sort.
5. The invention of internet was the _____ in the field of communication.
6. I will have to _____ to ensure that I get to deliver this presentation tomorrow.
7. Stop worrying about the number of people coming for the program. We will _____.
8. I knew my lines but just froze on the stage. Now, I can't impress the judges, _____.
9. I am _____. It's snowing badly.
10. "Come on kids! Time to _____. You have an important assignment at school tomorrow and you must not miss it."