

Prepositions of time (Beginners)

Fill in the blanks with suitable prepositions. Choose from the given options:

(at, in, on, by, from, before, after, during, since, for, until)

1. Can we meet _____ Sunday?
2. You can't leave _____ you submit your project.
3. She has been playing _____ three o'clock _____ the afternoon.
4. We will visit granny's house _____ the summer vacation.
5. He has been ill _____ a couple of months now.
6. Please submit your paper _____ next Monday.
7. Mary got popcorn _____ the interval.
8. Sahil has been living abroad _____ he was a child.
9. It has been raining _____ the past four hours.
10. He acted as the chairman of the board _____ 2000 _____ 2010.
11. Nobody has lived in this house _____ 2008.
12. I often fall asleep _____ a movie.
13. I will reach _____ the program starts.
14. I will complete my schooling _____ 2020.
15. They are coming back _____ the weekend.