

Multiple Choice Worksheet

Questions

1. Where does the poet describe the tiger at the beginning of the poem?
 - a) In the forest hunting a deer
 - b) In a cage behind bars
 - c) On the bank of a river
 - d) Under a tree in the jungle
2. The phrase 'He stalks in his vivid stripes' refers to:
 - a) The tiger's aggressive movement in the forest
 - b) His restless pacing inside the cage
 - c) His hunt for prey in the night
 - d) His freedom in the wild
3. What emotion is reflected when the tiger moves in the cage?
 - a) Contentment
 - b) Anger and frustration
 - c) Excitement
 - d) Joy and pride
4. According to the poem, where should the tiger actually be?
 - a) In the zoo to entertain people
 - b) In the jungle hunting deer near the water hole
 - c) Sleeping in a cage
 - d) Playing with other animals
5. How do the tiger's feet move when he walks in the cage?
 - a) Loud and thundering
 - b) Silent and soft
 - c) Fast and playful
 - d) Proud and majestic
6. The poet contrasts the tiger's life in the cage with his life in the forest. Which line reflects his free life?
 - a) 'He stalks in his vivid stripes'
 - b) 'He should be lurking in shadow'
 - c) 'He hears the last voice at night'
 - d) 'He stalks the length of his cage'

7. What does the line 'He hears the last voice at night' imply?

- a) The tiger listens to the patrolling cars of zookeepers
- b) The tiger listens to visitors leaving
- c) The tiger listens to hunters in the forest
- d) The tiger listens to animals making noise

8. Which of the following best expresses the central theme of the poem?

- a) Animals should be displayed for human amusement
- b) A tiger looks more beautiful in captivity than in the wild
- c) The loss of freedom and dignity of wild animals when kept in cages
- d) The importance of feeding animals well in zoos

9. What literary device is used in the line 'He stalks in his vivid stripes'?

- a) Simile
- b) Oxymoron
- c) Metaphor
- d) Alliteration

10. What message does the poet want to convey through this poem?

- a) Tigers are dangerous and must be kept in cages
- b) Tigers are fascinating and should be admired in zoos
- c) Wild animals deserve freedom and should live in their natural habitat
- d) People should visit zoos more often to see animals closely